

The A.S.D.U.international 2018 Dance Guidelines

As of September 2017

1. The Competition

Once a year, the A.S.D.U. international hosts national championships and the international European Championships. The duration is as follows:

- a) National Championships: 1 - 4 days
- b) International Championships 3 - 4 days

2. Participant Guidelines

- a) All competitions are open to all members of a dance school or dance organization/club. The dance school / organization must be a member of the A.S.D.U.international
- b) First-time participation in an A.S.D.U.international competition is also possible without association membership (guest competitor status).
- c) A participant may compete for a maximum of 2 schools/organizations, but only in different disciplines.
- d) Qualification for the European Championships:
 - Open to competitors who have qualified in national competitions.
 - Competitors from countries without national competitions are automatically eligible to compete in the European Championships.

3. Registration

3.1. General

- a) Registration must be made through the A.S.D.U.international. Entries are only valid with proof of paid entrance fee.
- b) Upon registration, the A.S.D.U.international gains all production rights. The unlimited rights applies to all filming and photography from the competitions, which can, in every respect, be transmitted per whatever media form (particularly per TV broadcasts as well as video media and online, via on-demand-services) and other interactive usages.
- c) The number of participants and dances are, in principle, not limited. It is recommended, however, that the schools/organizations register as soon as possible, as the A.S.D.U. has the right to reject late registrations if there are an excessive number of entries.
- d) If registration must be withdrawn, 50% of the registration fee must be paid. If registration must be withdrawn within 2 weeks of the competition, or if registration is not complete, the full registration fee must be paid.

- e) Participants may participate in more than one category and in dances of different disciplines. When a school / organization is registered for several numbers in the same discipline, category, age-group, a dancer may participate in a maximum of 2.

3.2. Age Groups

A competition is comprised of a mini-, a children-, a junior-, and a general classes. The age cut-off-date is 1.1. of the current year.

The average age of the dancers determines the age group (exception: Solo category).

Minis:	6 – 9 years old
Children:	9.1 – 12.5 years old
Junior I:	12.6 – 15.5 years old
Junior II:	15.6 – 19.5 years old
General Category:	19.6 year of age and older

3.3. Categories

Solo:	one dancer
Duet/Trio:	two / three dancers
Small Groups:	4-10 dancers
Groups:	11 or more dancers

3.4. Disciplines

Registration of a dance in a respective discipline is to ensure that the dance is judged "with its own kind"; in other words the dance is evaluated based on the characteristics of the particular discipline. To ensure impartial scoring, the trained and qualified jury will judge the dances based on specific criteria. The individual dances will be compared to the others in the same discipline and category. The dance style is crucial in assigning the dance number to a discipline.

Classic/Ballet: Classical ballet techniques danced in ballet slippers or pointe shoes. It is possible to dance original choreography as well as parts of well-known pieces. The jury places extra value on proper technique and especially attitude. The emotion of ballet must be conveyed and represented in the technique, posture, and stage presence. Pointe is allowed beginning in the Junior 1 age-group, which means the dancer must be at least 12.5 years old (in all categories).

Contemporary/Modern: It is important that the various modern styles, for example Graham, Limon, Horton, Cunningham or Chladek, to name a few, are incorporated in these dance numbers. In addition, contemporary and neo-classical movements are permitted. Above all, contemporary/modern dance is not disco dancing.

Jazz & Lyrical Jazz Dance: There are various jazz-styles which are permitted – classical Jazz, Broadway Jazz, Lyrical Jazz or Latin Jazz. Main features include isolation movements (polycentric) parallelism, contractions, collapse, coordination, impulses and the danceability at different levels.

Urban Dance Styles: (formally. Hip-Hop/Funk/Street style): All established Urban Dance Styles, such as Locking, Popping, Electric Boogaloo, House, Crumping, BBoying (may not dominate the number), Party Dances, Wacking or Vogueing are allowed. In the presentation, several recognizable styles should be present; likewise the characteristics (music, expression, and clothing) of the style should be regarded. Acrobatic elements are allowed, however must not dominate (Acro Dance) and must homogeneously fit into the performance. Careful consideration should be given to selecting the proper clothing, as many of the styles' movements lose their effect when presented in the wrong clothing. The dance's elements and key features must be clearly expressed.

BBoying/Breakdance: BBoying consists of top-rocking, down-rocking, freezes und power moves. Acrobatic elements are also allowed. The focus should be the dance-like elements and the characteristic of the dance is to be followed. The presentation will be judged based upon the diversity, variation, and technique, as well as the homogeneity of the various individual styles and techniques.

Acro Dance: Acrobatics may be combined with different dance styles, for example BBoying/Breakdance, Hip-Hop and much more. Acrobatics is not only allowed, but also required, and must outweigh the dance elements.

Step/Tap-dance: It is important to master the step techniques. There are several different step styles allowed. This category also includes Irish Dance – the Irish step-dance. It is incredibly important that, if tapping is present on a CD that it is not audible.

Song & Dance: Dancing and singing must be balanced 50/50. All types of dancing and music styles are permitted. There are 3 hand-held microphones and 3 headsets available; at least 1 microphone must be used. It is important that the live-singing is audible and that on the performer- provided CD only a background choir is audible.

Musical: No live singing is allowed in the performance. The music selected should be originally from a musical or dance films (for example Grease, Dirty Dancing, StepUp, ...). Above all, it is important that the nature of the musical number is clearly recognizable. Chorography from the original (film/musical) is not allowed.

Production Number: The theme and/or context, as well as the story line of the performance must be clearly recognizable. The time-limit is restricted to a maximum of 4:30 minutes. Chorography based on the original staging is not permitted. Furthermore, only groups (of 11 or more dancers) may compete in this category. All styles of dance and live singing are allowed.

Folklore/Character/Ethnic Dance: Original choreography is allowed, but not required -it is important, that the original characteristics of the dances are preserved. Original movements should dominate the number; additionally music and style can be original. The costumes must be adapted to the original.

Commercial Dance Styles: This discipline consists of different dance styles and elements, which have characteristics of the MTV tradition. Modern and contemporary interpreted choreographies are to be paired with the music of famous singers / bands / club and party sounds. In commercial style, a combination of jazz, funk, hip-hop and many other styles can be found in live performances and music videos. The focus is on an expressive and animated performance that resembles current trends in the music and dance scene.

Open: All techniques, dances and performances that are not unique to one of the other designated disciplines or which combine various dance techniques / styles are classified as the discipline Open.

3.5. Time Limits

Solo, Pair/Trio: 1:30 - 2:00 minutes

Small groups, Groups: 2:00 - 3:00 minutes

Production Number: 3:00 - 4:30 minutes

Exception: Classical dance numbers – the music may be longer or shorter, as per the original choreography.

The timing begins with the apparent beginning of the dance and ends with the apparent end of the number. There is a time limit lenience of 5 seconds. (Production Number: 15 sec.)If the dance number goes over, or under, the time beyond the lenience limits there will be reduction of 20 points.
